Application of FireSide Natural Gas, LLC for Leave to Intervene

COMES NOW, FireSide Natural Gas, LLC (hereafter “FireSide”), pursuant to O.C.G.A. §50-13-14 and §46-2-59, Georgia Public Service Commission (hereafter “GPSC” or “Commission”) Rule 512-2-1.06, and the Procedural and Scheduling Order entered in the above-referenced matter on December 15, 2015, hereby files its Application for Leave to Intervene in this proceeding. In support of this application FireSide Natural Gas respectfully shows the following:

1.

FireSide is a natural gas marketing company that has been certified by the Commission to market natural gas to end-users in all delivery groups and pools in the State of Georgia.

2.

As an active natural gas marketer, FireSide has both a legal and a property interest in this proceeding. It receives distribution service from Atlanta Gas Light Company for all of its customers, and is allocated or assigned a proportion of Atlanta Gas Light Company’s costs for various services and programs. FireSide is also a competitor of SouthStar Energy Services LLC, d/b/a Georgia Natural Gas.

3.

In a competitive marketplace, no other party, including other gas marketers who have or may apply for intervention in the above-referenced docket, can adequately represent FireSide's rights and interests in this matter.

4.

FireSide's participation in this docket will not unduly delay or prejudice the rights of other parties. This application is timely filed pursuant to the Procedural and Scheduling Order.

5.

FireSide does not currently anticipate filing testimony, but it will notify the Commission and other parties of record if it files testimony pursuant to the December 15, 2015, Procedural and Scheduling Order.

6.

All notices, correspondence and copies of orders and other materials filed in this docket should be addressed to Robert B. Baker, as the attorney for FireSide, and he should be placed on the official service list in this proceeding.
