GEORGIA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

CAMDEN'S STATEMENT FOR TRADE SECRET PROTECTION

Camden Telephone and Telegraph Company, Inc. ("Camden") hereby files this Statement for Trade Secret Protection for Camden's Cost Study Data, including all associated workpapers, Camden's Affiliated Transactions Cost and Market Analysis, Camden's full detailed trial balances, Camden's Cost Allocation Manual, and Camden's detailed calculation of imputed revenues from competitive services for HB 168 impact pursuant to Section 515-3-1-.11 of the Rules of the Georgia Public Service Commission ("PSC"), and states as follows:

1. Rule 515-3-1-.11 requires that a party claiming that information constitutes a trade secret provide, in writing, that basis of this claim. Rule 515-3-1-.11(c) specifically requires that this statement detail (1) the economic benefit derived from the information not being generally known; (2) the economic benefit to others if disclosure were to occur and (3) the procedures utilized to maintain confidentiality. This statement is submitted pursuant to those requirements. Camden is submitting this statement in accordance with the Commission's rules requiring submission of cost studies stating expenses, revenues and documented analyses comparing cost to market data for certain goods and/or services obtained from or provided to affiliates, full detailed trial balances including numerous subaccounts utilized for internal management purposes and detailed nonregulated accounts for competitive activities, a detailed Cost Allocation Manual, and detailed calculation of imputed revenues from competitive services for HB 168 impact associated with the Universal Access Fund High Cost Application. The expenses and revenues and other financial information and analyses included in these studies are trade secret.

2. The subject trade secret material is the expense and revenue data derived from conducting the cost studies, the specific cost to market comparisons of the affiliated transactions, numerous subaccounts in the full detailed trial balances utilized for internal management purposes and detailed nonregulated accounts for competitive activities, a detailed Cost Allocation Manual which describes the specific operations and cost methodologies utilized by Camden and its affiliates, and calculation of imputed revenues from competitive services included in determining the HB 168 impact adjustment to the revenue requirement..

3. The release of this expense, revenue, and details of competitive services information would disadvantage Camden by providing its competitors an unfair competitive advantage by disclosing data regarding Camden's customers and finances that is not generally known and would not be readily ascertainable to third parties by any proper means. Camden takes all appropriate and legal measures to ensure that such information is disseminated internally only to those with a need to know, and that all public measures are taken to protect the information when it is required to be filed in a public forum.

4. Release of Camden proprietary financial and competitive information to the general public would provide Camden's competitors an unfair advantage in a competitive market.
