BEFORE THE GEORGIA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

GEORGIA POWER COMPANY

AFFIDAVIT AND BASIS FOR THE ASSERTION THAT THE INFORMATION SUBMITTED IS A TRADE SECRET

Each month Georgia Power Company ("Georgia Power" or the Company") provides its Net Sales Report for the previous month (the "Report") to the Georgia Public Service Commission. Portions of the Report contain competitively sensitive commercial and financial information related to the Company's net sales data. The Report includes revenue and kwh sales information by class of service. Portions of the Report have not yet been released to the public via required quarterly filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Information"). The Information is a trade secret of the Southern Company, Georgia Power, and their affiliates.

The Information derives economic value from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use. Additionally, the Information is subject to extensive efforts to maintain its secrecy.

The Company and its customers could suffer economic harm if the Information was publicly disseminated. The Information contains recent revenues and sales information of the Company which could be used by potential investors or lenders to demand higher interest rates or returns. Investors could also use the Information to the detriment of other investors, causing overall economic harm to the Company.

The Information is subject to substantial procedures to maintain its secrecy. Only select Georgia Power and Southern Company Services personnel are granted access to the Information. Those personnel receive access only on a "need to know" basis. Parties outside Georgia Power and Southern Company Services who have been granted access to the Information, if any, have been required to sign confidentiality agreements with respect to the Information.

Andy Hamilton, first being duly sworn, deposes and states that he has reviewed Georgia Power Company's Net Sales Report and that to the best of his knowledge the information included in such report is accurate and that the specific information designated as trade secret constitute trade secrets pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 10-1-27.
