Annual Unclaimed Customer Deposit Report – Year 2023

Pursuant to Commission Rule 515-7-5-.06(2)(g)ii XOOM Energy Georgia, LLC hereby files its annual unclaimed customer deposit report for Year 2023.

a) The dollar amount, even if $0.00, of the annual remittance of customer deposits to the USF. Separately identifying the dollar amount of the customer deposits and the dollar amount of the interest included on the customer deposits;

Response: Redacted

b) Either the actual or average interest rate earned on the deposits during the two year period prior to the remittance to the USF. The marketers and the Regulated Provider shall employ any of the following three methods to demonstrate how the interest rate was determined: (i) Dividing the sum of the total interest for each period (month) by the sum of the total customer deposits for each period (month). (ii) Dividing the sum of the interest rates for each period (month) by the number of periods (month), or (iii) Using the actual interest rates listed on the bank account statements. The marketer and Regulated Provider must state which method was used in its annual filing.

Response: Redacted

c) The total dollar amount, even if $0.00, of deposits that have not been delivered to or claimed by the consumer for which less than two years have passed since the consumer was eligible to receive the refund of the deposit. This component of the filing shall include the number of customer accounts that are associated with this dollar amount.

Response: Redacted

Respectfully submitted this 4 of December 2023.
