Application for Leave to Intervene of Resource Supply Management

NOW COMES, Resource Supply Management (“RSM”) and pursuant to O.C.G.A. §§ 50-13-14 and 46-2-59, and Public Service Commission Rule 515-2-1.06, files this application for leave to intervene in the above-referenced proceeding. In support of its application RSM states the following:

1.

On November 21, 2023, the Georgia Public Service Commission (hereafter “Commission”) approved a Procedural and Scheduling Order for this docket.

2.

RSM provides unregulated energy services to commercial and industrial customers of Georgia Power Company. RSM’s services include the procurement of energy supplies and the efficient management of energy use.

The interests of RSM and its customers may be substantially affected by decisions made by the Commission in this proceeding. Specifically, RSM’s customers will influence the service offerings affected by the Commission’s order in this docket regarding Georgia Power Company’s policies and proposed rates. Furthermore, the policies and rates of Georgia Power greatly impact the way RSM does business. The nature of these policies and rates influences services offerings we make to our customers.

Resource Supply Management requests the following persons receive all notices, correspondence, and copies of pleadings, orders, and other materials filed in this docket, and that all communications regarding this docket be directed to:

Jim Clarkson

No other party in this docket can adequately represent the interests of RSM. None of the other parties have interests identical to RSM. RSM's participation in this docket will not unduly delay or prejudice the rights of other parties.

WHEREFORE, Resource Supply Management requests the Commission grant its application for leave to intervene and admit it as a full party of record in this proceeding with all rights attendant thereto.

Respectfully submitted this 3rd day of January, 2024.
