Subject: RE: Sandersville - Briefing Schedule

Steve,

June 12 does not fit our schedule, nor that of Intervenors as far as we understand, due to other litigation deadlines, a maternity leave, a vacation, and other scheduling conflicts. Instead of filing the reply by June 28 as we originally proposed, we are noticing the Commission today of an intent to file by June 20. Please let us know by 1pm whether you consent or object to this.

Thanks,
Betsy

Will:

Sandersville Railroad filed its Brief in Opposition to Applications for Full Commission Review, Requests for Oral Argument, and Motion for Stay of Order within 21 days of the last of the filed Applications of the Respondents and Intervenors. Sandersville Railroad can agree to Respondents and Intervenors filing their reply briefs, if any, within the same timeframe, i.e., by Wednesday, June 12, 2024, which is 21 days from the filing of Sandersville Railroad's brief in opposition. Sandersville Railroad feels that this is a good compromise given that reply briefs are typically and should be much shorter than opening and responsive briefing and the hopeful desire of all parties for an expeditious decision by the full Commission on the Applications.

Thank you. Have a good, long weekend,

SLJ

Hi Steve,

Good speaking with you. Under the rules, I don't believe there is a provision for a response to our recent filing. However, I understand that you want to do so. We don't oppose so long as we can agree to propose a reasonable briefing schedule with an opportunity to reply (as you've said, the side with the burden has gets the last word). As discussed we would like to jointly propose your response be due on May 31 and our reply due on June 28. Of course, intervenors have the right to reply and weigh in as well.

Steve, again on a personal note, we're going to be working together on this case for a while and I strongly believe we should continue to work together and extend each other courtesies, convenient briefing schedules, and extensions. It will be better for us all.

I did my best to cc everyone I'm supposed to, but if I forgot feel free to add anybody I missed.

Regards,
Will
