ATLANTA GAS LIGHT COMPANY'S AMENDED NOTICE REGARDING REMAINING TAX BENEFITS

Atlanta Gas Light Company ("AGL" or the "Company") hereby files this Amended Notice with the Georgia Public Service Commission (the "Commission") in accordance with Paragraph 5 of the Stipulation the Commission approved in the above referenced docket on December 12, 2024. Final Order Approving Stipulation, In Re: Atlanta Gas Light Co.'s 2025-2027 Annual Georgia Rate Adjustment Mechanism Filings, Docket No. 42315 (Ga. P.S.C. Dec. 12, 2024). Paragraph 5 of the Stipulation provides that to the extent there are any remaining tax benefits from the Company's anticipated tax credits and savings, after the tax benefits have been applied to the Company's storm damages for Hurricane Helene, the Company must file a notice with the Commission. The Company is in the process of finalizing the tax benefits, and although most of the tax credits will be used to address storm costs, there likely will be tax benefits and savings remaining. Accordingly, the Company hereby notifies the Commission that the Company expects there to be remaining tax benefits, and the Company will include as a placeholder the amounts and proposal for disposition in its 2026 GRAM, which will be filed Tuesday, July 1, 2025. In accordance with the Stipulation, AGL will work with Staff on the Company's proposed treatment of the tax benefits and savings through the GRAM review process.[1]

Submitted this 30th day of June 2025.

[1] "To the extent the Company receives additional federal or state tax credits or reductions in tax rates during the 2025 and 2026 or 2027 GRAM test years, such tax benefits will be incorporated into AGL's GRAM. The Company will apply such future tax benefits without having to file an amendment first to any remaining expenses for storm damage, and to the extent there is any additional remaining balance of the tax benefits, the Company will file a notice with the Commission and will work with Staff to determine the treatment of such remaining balance with the understanding that the balance of the tax benefits will inure to the benefit of customers. To the extent that Staff and the Company cannot reach an agreement, the Commission shall determine the appropriate treatment." Final Order Approving Stipulation, In Re: Atlanta Gas Light Co.'s 2025-2027 Annual Georgia Rate Adjustment Mechanism Filings, Docket No. 42315 at ¶ 5.
