RE: Notice of Inquiry to Municipal Competitive Local Exchange Carriers, Docket Number 56628

On behalf of the City of Albany, please find below our NOI responses.

Question 1.
Does your municipality currently employ a CAM to determine how to allocate costs between its CLEC and municipal functions?

Response 1.
The City of Albany does not currently employ a CAM to determine how to allocate costs between its CLEC and municipal functions.

Question 2.
If your municipality does not currently employ a CAM, would you be willing to create one if the Commission were to eliminate the certificate order requirements for cost studies and annual reports?

Response 2.
Yes, the City of Albany would be willing to create a CAM if the Commission were to eliminate the certificate order requirements for cost studies and annual reports.

Question 3.
Are there any concerns or additional issues the Commission should consider related to this matter?

Response 3.
No, the City of Albany does not have any concerns or additional issues that we believe the Commission should consider related to this matter at this time.

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to this NOI and if there are any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Respectfully submitted,

John Dawson
