Due to scheduling and personnel availability, the Waycross Service Center Audit was not completed in CY 2024. On May 5, 2025, Staff performed a follow-up inspection of the Operators previously existing probable violations for the Waycross Service Center.

PROBABLE VIOLATIONS CLEARED

On August 17, 2018, AGLC notified the Commission of a natural gas explosion that occurred inside a commercial business at 23 E. Dame Avenue (the Coffee Corner) in Homerville, GA. On or about March 27, 2019, in accordance with Commission Rule 515-9-3-.08, AGLC was notified in writing of Notice of Probable Violations ("NOPV") incorporated within the context of Staff's Incident Report, DL19-004 (filed in this Docket No. 42166 on March 29, 2019), which alleged actions/inactions on part of Respondent in connection with the August 17, 2018 incident.

On February 10, 2020, AGLC entered into a consent agreement with the Commission which constituted a final resolution of this proceeding and any other proceeding that could have been brought against AGL in connection with the August 17, 2018 incident.

As a result of this consent agreement Staff determined that these probable violations should be cleared at this time.
