RE: Waverly Hall Telephone General Subscriber Tariff Proposed Revisions

Dear Ms. Tanner,

Waverly Hall Telephone Company ("Waverly Hall") hereby submits the following revised tariff sheets, pursuant to the requirements of the Public Service Commission and applicable rules, bearing an effective date of June 15, 2026, of the Waverly Hall Telephone Company Subscriber Service Tariff:

- Section M, First Revised Sheet 11
- Section M, Second Revised Sheet 12
- Section M, Second Revised Sheet 13
- Section M, First Revised Sheet 15
- Section M, Second Revised Sheet 18

The revisions are necessary to reflect updated local service feature functionality as Waverly Hall makes strategic investment in its switching infrastructure. Due to provisioning differences between switching platforms, certain calling features and advanced calling features must be modified. These changes will not impact the rates or service quality associated with Basic Local Exchange Service.

This filing will have the following impact:

1. Remove the Residential Speed Calling (8-Code) and definition - This will have no impact on current subscribers or Revenues as there have been no subscribers to this feature in the past 36 months or longer.
2. Remove the Residential Speed Calling (30-Code) and definition - This will have no impact on current subscribers or Revenues as there have been no subscribers to this feature in the past 36 months or longer.
3. Remove the feature Automatic Recall for both Residential and Business and remove language defining Automatic Recall. – As of today, there are zero (0) active subscribers to this service, and there has only been one subscriber to this residential service over the past 36 month. There will be no impact to revenues.
1. Remove the feature Automatic Callback – As of today, there are zero (0) active subscribers to this service, and there has only been one subscriber to this residential service over the past 36 month. There will be no impact to revenues.

We have included a redline copy showing the changes being made for Commission Staff's ease of use but have also included a clean copy.

Please contact me at Stephen.Bass@bakertilly.com or 303-723-7826 if you have questions regarding this filing.

Sincerely,

Stephen Bass
