BEFORE THE GEORGIA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Georgia Power Company
Docket No. 44280
Georgia Power Company's 2022 Rate Case

BASIS FOR THE ASSERTION THAT THE INFORMATION SUBMITTED IS A TRADE SECRET

As part of Georgia Power Company's ("Georgia Power" or the "Company") 2022 Rate Case Docket, Docket No. 44280, the Company is filing with the Georgia Public Service Commission ("Commission") the estimated incremental revenue from Large Load customers in years 2029, 2030, and 2031 (the "Information"). The Information constitutes trade secret information of the Southern Company, Georgia Power, and its affiliates, and is therefore protected from public disclosure under Commission Rule 515-3-1-.11.

The Information derives economic value from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use. Specifically, the Information contains confidential incremental revenue from Large Load customers that will be set as a minimum estimate for the years 2029, 2030, and 2031. Disclosure of the Information would seriously harm the Company's ability to negotiate favorable and constructive terms with potential Large Load customers. If the Information was revealed to the public, other Large Load customers and competitors could use the Information in contract negotiations to obtain favorable terms to the detriment of customers and the Company. This would ultimately result in rates and terms that are less economic for all customers.

The Information is subject to substantial procedures to maintain its secrecy. Only select Georgia Power personnel are granted access to the Information. Those personnel receive access only on a "need to know" basis.

Tyler Cook, first being duly sworn, deposes and states that she has reviewed the attached document and that the information included in such document is accurate to the best of her knowledge and that the specific information designated as trade secret constitute trade secrets in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 10-1-761.
