Re: Docket No. 42315 Revised Affiliate Transaction Reports: January 2025 – March 2026

Dear Ms. Tanner,

In accordance with Paragraph 16 of the Stipulation adopted by the Commission in its Order on Reconsideration in Docket 18638-U, the Staff engaged in discussions with Atlanta Gas Light Company (AGLC) regarding proposed affiliate guidelines. As a result of those discussions, AGLC and the Staff have agreed upon a format for periodic reporting of affiliate transactions.

Following the filing of the Company's Q1 2026 GRAM and Q1 2026 Affiliate Transaction Reports, the Company identified certain affiliate charges that were inadvertently included in affiliate billings due to a change in reporting parameters. The affected periods span January 2025 through March 2026. Upon identification, the matter was evaluated and addressed, and the related affiliate billing information was revised. This revision impacts only the reporting presentation of affiliate charges and does not affect the underlying costs incurred by the Company or the amounts reflected in the Company's cost of service.

Enclosed are the revised reports, which cover January 2025 through March 2026.

Certain portions of the revised report contain competitively sensitive information relating to allocations among Southern Company Gas' subsidiaries. Accordingly, AGLC is filing a trade secret version of those portions of the document. Specifically, AGLC is filing the "Shared Services Costs to Business Unit by Service Provider", "Direct Charged Capital Payroll from AGL Services Company", "Capitalized and Distributed Allocated from AGSC", and the "Allocation Factors" as trade secret. Pursuant to the terms of Commission Rule 515-3-1-.11, AGLC is providing this information under protective seal (each page is marked "Trade Secret"). Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Wade
